

In many high-income countries,
cervical cancer is rare.

Almost 90% of cases and more than 90% of deaths occur in low-and middle-income countries.

Efficient screening programmes and vaccination against HPV can save lives